YELLOW JACKETS BOW TO THE INDIANS

W. & M.-Trinity Game Is To Be Bitterly Contested

Opposing Teams In the Pink of Condition For Tomorrow's Conflict

After four days of secret practice, marked by long and strenuous scrimmages, Coach Bill Ingram is taking his tribesmen to Norfolk with the express intention of bringing home the bacon. Although the Indians defeated one Methodist eleven last week with ease, they expect to use the best they have in the struggle with the Trinity Methodists at Norfolk tomorrow.

The Indians have respect for the prowess of the Carolina team and realize that their victory last year is not an indication of tomorrow's score. Trinity supporters feel that their team was in its initial stage of development when they were defeated by William and Mary last season and hope to wipe out the sting of that defeat by a clean-cut victory over the Indians in Norfolk.

Trinity has had a very successful season to date, opening season by a 47-0 victory over Guilford College. Trinity followed that victory by trouncing Hampden-Sidney 27-0 the next week. Trinity was defeated last Saturday by the University of North Carolina eleven by the score of 20-0. The score does not tell much about the game, for the University was forced to resort to overhead attack in order to win.

With the exception of the Thanksgiving classic at Richmond, the William and Mary-Trinity game is the most important of the season, inasmuch as it will determine the championship of the lesser Virginia-Carolina elevens. A large number of students and alumni will accompany the teams to the seaport town to cheer their respective elevens. The principal stores of Norfolk will be decorated with the colors of both schools. The sale of tickets is expected to reach eight thousand by the time the starting whistle blows.

William and Mary rooters will be seated in the west bleachers and the Trinity rooters will arrange themselves in the east bleachers. Five Norfolk boys will probably be on the eleven starting for the Indians, Hastings, White, Irwin, House, and Chalkley. The following men will probably start the conflict: Chalkley and Jordan, ends; Young and Rangeley, tackles; Parsons and House, guards; Todd, center; Hastings, Irwin or Flanders, White and Levvy, backs.

The attendance at the University of the Philippines for last year was 4,718, an increase of 237 per cent. Few colleges can boast of such progress.

Mr. Brockman Delivers Address On China and Japan

"Japan might have been a friend of the United States today instead of an enemy if America had responded to the call of the Japanese for Christianity in the early eighties," said W.W. Brockman, of Soochow, China, in an address to the members of the Y. M. C. A. last Monday night in the College chapel. What a difference it would have made in the history of the world if America had fulfilled her duty. Japan desired Christianity and help at that time, and was friendly towards the United States. Today, however, we have a powerful enemy in the East.

Mr. Brockman, whose father was an alumnus of William and Mary, has been associated with college men through the Y. M. C. A. for many years. He is at present General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. movement in Soochow, China, and has organized some of the largest and most progressive associations in China. Mr. Brockman is spending several months in America in the interest of the foreign work of the Y. M. C. A.

"China is in a plastic condition today," Mr. Brockman said, "She loves peace, but she may be led to militarism as was Japan," he warned. There was a time when we considered China so far away that it made no difference what happened there, but science has changed this and linked

Rotarians Paid Visit to College

An enthusiastic meeting of the combined Rotary Clubs of Newport News and Hampton, to which were invited more than fifty representative citizens of Williamsburg, was held in the College dining hall Tuesday night, October 17th, at 9 o'clock. Though scheduled for 7, the dinner party was delayed two hours by reason of the breaking down of the train which brought the Rotarians to Williamsburg.

This, however, failed to dampen their ardor in the least, and upon arriving they proceeded to enjoy themselves more than they had really intended to.

The purpose of the meeting was announced as being to bind more closely together the different sections of the Peninsula and to cultivate and extend the Rotary spirit of good fellowship. "The idea is to unite more closely the various parts of the Peninsula community," said Rotarian Lenz; "For if we know each other better, we'll like each other better." That this idea was carried out, the Williamsburg citizens present will heartily attest.

Inter-Fraternity Council Amends Rushing Rules

1. That pledge day shall be on November 1, 1922, and bids shall be mailed on the night of October 30th, at 8 P. M. Bid must be returned between 10 A. M. and 12 noon, November 1st. From 8 P. M. on October 30th to 12 noon on November 1st, no fraternity man is allowed to talk with any man to whom he has given a bid.

2. Anything in the rushing rules conflicting with this is hereby repealed.

Virginia Beta Chapter of Alphi Phi Epsilon has been granted a seat on the inner-fraternity council.

Board of Visitors Hold An Important Meeting

The regular meeting of the Board of Visitors convened yesterday at 2:30 p. m., to consider several matters affecting the general growth and expansion of the college.

Among the matters to be taken up is the enlargement of the dining hall, the power house, and the library, all of which are rapidly becoming inadequate to accommodate the increased enrollment. The new dormitory for boys, on which work will begin shortly, will also receive consideration.

The Board of Visitors will also decide as to what use the Blair Homestead will be put when it is secured. The plan at present is for the college to lease the property for a period of two years from the society which recently organized to preserve it. During this period, and at the next session of the Legislature, a bill be presented allowing the college to purchase the homestead on the condition that it will take over the responsibility of preserving this old landmark.

$9000 Needed For New Dormitory

Work on the new dormitory for boys, to be situated on the Richmond Road opposite Jefferson Hall, is to begin as soon as the College gets in hand the first half of the sum to be raised by it. Dr. Chandler now needs $9,000.00 to complete the first $60,000.00. When this sum is raised, the State advances $30,000, and work on the new dormitory will then begin. The State will put up an additional $50,000.00 when the College completes its quota of $120,000.00. The campaign for funds will be continued without interruption, the memorial room plan being followed as with the first half of the quota.

William and Mary Uses Straight Football To Smother The Methodists

Line bucks and end runs played the leading role in William and Mary's 33 to 7 victory over Randolph-Macon. With scouts from other colleges viewing the game, the Indians used only straight football during the first half. On three occasions during this period the Yellow Jackets' line stiffened and held the Indians for downs within a few feet of the goal. Indians scored first after a succession of line bucks, end runs and a 40-yard pass. Hastings kicked goal. The Indians next counter came as a result of a 75-yard run by White after receiving a punt on his 25-yard line. Randolph-Macon's lone score came when Hastings fumbled on a kick off and Hardison scooped the ball up and ran 25 yards in open field for a touchdown. The first half ended 13 to 7 in favor of William and Mary. Randolph-Macon played an excellent brand of defensive ball. The Yellow Jackets made two first downs in the first half to the Indians 7. The Indians came back with a vim in the second half and scored three touchdowns by lugging the ball through the line, and by off tackles in this period, the Indians made 13 first downs against the Yellow Jackets' one. The features for the Indians were excellent plays by the entire back field, White's 75-yard run and Levvy's and Irwin's broken field running, Flanders' generalship and ground gaining was a thing of beauty and a joy forever. White and Jordan completed two 40-yard passes. Todd deserves mention for all round work. For Randolph-Macon, Bauserman's defensive and Hardeson's offensive playing was of the best brand. Captain Smoot was a bulwark of defensive for the Yellow Jackets.

GAME BY QUARTERS

First Quarter

Randolph-Macon won the toss and elected to kick. Bauserman kicked to White on Indian's 20-yard line; White ran the ball back to the 40-yard line. Irwin made ten yards off tackle for a first down. White made another first down by punching the center of the line three times. He then tore off six yards around left end, and on the next play a Yellow Jacket broke through the line and threw the Indian runner for a five-yard loss.

White punted to Riddick, who returned the ball to the 30-yard line. Flanders recovered the ball on a fumble and White drove through guard for eight yards. Irwin made a yard on an off tackle play and Flanders made a plunge through center for a first down. White skirted left end for five yards and Irwin tore three yards off tackle. Randolph-Macon's

Philomatheans Hold Good Meeting

Revival of interest in literary work was manifested at the meeting of the Philomathean Literary Society last Saturday evening. Mr. F. A. Adams, Jr., showed a talent in reading that may prove helpful in the Freshman Contest. The declaimers were Mr. Moffitt and Mr. Hord. Mr. Hord's declamation was of a humorous type and was so well delivered that it produced roars of laughter.

"Resolved: That all students should be required to attend church once a week" was the subject for debate. This proved to be a most interesting question and the arguments of the debaters were well presented. The ayes and nays on a roll call for decision of the question showed that the debaters presented good arguments. Messrs. Wright and Francis of the affirmative defeated Messrs. Downing and Hord of the negative.

It was decided to hold preliminaries for debaters on October 28th for the Freshman Contest to be held on November 24th. The subject for debate in the Contest will be "Resolved: That President Harding was justified in vetoing the Bonus Bill."

All freshmen are invited to join the society and try for a place on the Philomathean team. The winners of this debate will receive valuable gold medals. Either side of the question may be used in the preliminaries. Further announcements will be made at the regular meeting of the society tomorrow night at 7:30 p. m.

Freshman Contest To Be On November 24

The Philomathean and Phoenix Literary Societies have selected Friday, November the 24th, as the date for the Annual Inter-society Freshman Contest.

Every year representatives of the Societies contest in reading, declamation, oration, and debate. Beautiful medals are awarded the successful contestants, and the winning society receives a banner to be held for a year. Reading, declamation, and oration each count one point while the debate counts two points. The subject to be debated this year is, "Resolved: That President Harding was justified in vetoing the Bonus Bill."

The Phoenixians are determined to revenge their defeats of the past few years; but the Philomatheans announce that they have some able men, and they are equally determined that the banner shall not leave their hall. A good contest is expected.

Phoenix Literary Society Held Most Interesting Meeting

The most interesting feature of the last meeting of the Phoenix Literary Society was the hard-fought debate on the question, "Resolved: That Turkey should surrender Constantinople." The question was approached from historical, economic, religious, and political standpoint. Members volunteered on the programme.

The programme for tomorrow evening includes a debate on a nationwide question that nearly everyone is interested in and one which no doubt everyone would like to hear discussed. Every man student in College is invited to attend this meeting and help in bettering the Society and in increasing interest in literary work among his fellow students.

The Clayton-Grimes Biology Club Meets

The second meeting this year of the Clayton-Grimes Biology Club was held Monday night, October 16th, in the physics lecture room of the Science Hall.

During the business session, the dues for the coming year were fixed at $2.00 and the meeting night was changed from Monday night to Tuesday night. The Club will meet twice a month.

After the business session was over, Miss Betty Robertson read a paper on "Pre-Historic Animals in South America," and Mr. L. M. Dickerson made a talk on "The Four Leaf Clover" and illustrated his talk with actual specimens.

At the close of the program, Mr. Roy Hoskins and Mr. Eddie Davis served the members with lemonade and ham sandwiches.

The Club will hold its next meeting October 30th, at 7:30 P. M. in the physics lecture room of the Science Hall.

POPULAR COURSE IN AESTHETIC DANCING NOW GIVEN

Miss Madline Wales, a graduate of the Savage School of Physical Education, and now is a member of the faculty, is conducting a class in aesthetic dancing for girls. Following the Dolcroze methods, the girls are studying rhythm as it applies not only to aesthetic dancing, but to all branches of art. William and Mary has never had a class of this kind before, and many students are keenly interested in its development. A demonstration of this work will be given in the middle of the year. Miss Wales, who possesses unusual charm of personality, is exactly the one to make this work a success.

Scrubs Battle Camp Eustis Today On Cary Field 3 P. M.

Coach "Bob" Wallace's fighting scrubs will battle a regimental team from Camp Eustis this afternoon on Cary Field. Composed of almost entirely green football material, the scrubs have steadily developed under the tutorship of Bob Wallace, Indian star of former years. The scrubs will present a well balanced team against the hefty eleven from the artillery camp.

The scrubs have perfected a strong defense by their daily scrimmages with the varsity, and can be expected to hold their own in this aspect of the game. Duncan, at fullback, can be relied upon to stop almost anything that sifts through the line.

The scrubs have had little time to develop a strong offensive, but any team that fights as they do against the superior varsity will give a good account of itself and merit the attendance and support of every loyal Indian fan. The scrubs will probably line up with Manner, Schmitz and Goodwin, ends; Soles and Gravely, tackles; Lawford and Alkire, guards; Ferrett, center; Evans, Duncan, Tennis (captain), Getz, backs.

Boxing Class Starts

Instruction in boxing is now being offered by the department of Physical Education. Boxing, heretofore a neglected aspect of physical training in Colleges, is beginning to assume its proper place as a minor sport. All of the larger universities have inaugurated this branch of sport and a number of them have boxing teams that fill regular schedules like the teams of any other sport. William and Mary is probably the first College in Virginia to offer boxing classes to its students. For information concerning the course in boxing, the students are advised to watch the bulletin board.

TENNIS TEAM TO PLAY RICHMOND COUNTRY CLUB

On Saturday, October 28, at Richmond, an all star team representing the faculty as well as the students will entertain the racketers of the Richmond Country Club on the club's courts.

Eight men, including three professors, will make the trip; and the match of nine sets will consist of six singles and six doubles. Inasmuch as the football game between Hampden-Sidney and William and Mary will take place on Saturday afternoon, it is probable that the tennis matches will be played in the morning.

Wilshin, J. G. Pollard, Marshall, Cline, and Peterson will represent the students, and Professors Robb, Rowe, and Counselman will represent the faculty.

Here And There

Lionel Levvy's injured foot is improving rapidly, but he will be unable to scrimmage until the second week in November.

"Doc" Rangle is showing up well in scrimmage and should play a leading part in Saturday's fray.

Irwin, Cain, and Charles continue to improve and are beginning to handle themselves like veterans. Irwin's running against the Yellow Jackets was peerless.

A large number of rooters will go to Norfolk and a cheer leader will probably be there to lead them in some good yelling.

Students will be admitted to the Norfolk game at a reduced rate. Let's everybody go! ON TO NORFOLK!

Spiders came near defeating the University of Virginia. More glory for us Thanksgiving.

Duncon, of the scrubs, is playing a nice brand of defensive ball at full back. He is a sure tackler. Ask a varsity back. Keep it up Duncon; heredity doesn't govern the varsity positions.

YELLOW JACKETS BOW TO INDIANS

end broke through the line and spoiled the next play resulting in a three-yard loss for the Indians. After an unsuccessful attempt to pass, White kicked. Randolph-Macon was unable to penetrate William and Mary's stone wall defense and was forced to kick. Riddick seemed to be almost smothered by Indian warriors, when suddenly he emerged from the crowd and skirted left end for 15 yards. On the next two plays the Indian line held. Young broke through the Yellow Jacket line and threw Bauserman for a three-yard loss. Randolph-Macon was forced to punt, and after three unsuccessful attempts to get ten yards, William and Mary punted. The receiver of the punt was downed in his tracks. Bauserman drove through left tackle for five yards, and an off-side penalty gave Randolph-Macon a first down. The Yellow Jackets failed to gain through the line and Chalkley broke up an end run for a five-yard loss. Riddick punted out of bounds on the Indian fifty-yard line. Stopped by the Yellow Jacket defense, White and Jordan executed a thirty-five yard pass. Flanders went off tackle for eight yards. The Randolph-Macon line stiffened and held the Indians for downs, when the latter had only six inches to go for a first down and ten yards for a touchdown.

Second Quarter

The ball was on the ten-yard line. Failing to gain through the line, Randolph-Macon kicked to White who brought the ball back to the twenty-five yard line. White gained nine yards over tackle Hastings hit center for a first down. Irwin bucked the line for two yards and Hastings made it a first down on two tries over tackle. Flanders plunged over tackle for a touchdown. Hastings kicked the extra point. Randolph-Macon kicked off to Hastings who fumbled. Hardison recovered the ball on the fly and raced twenty yards through an open field for a touchdown. Riddick kicked the goal from the field. Randolph-Macon kicked off to White who carried the oval back forty yards to the center of the field. Bell broke through the interference and down Hastings for a three-yard loss. The Indians could not gain and Chalkley boted the pig skin to Riddick, who returned it to the forty-yard line. The Indians were penalized five yards for being off-side. Hardison broke through tackle for three yards. Failing to gain further, Randolph-Macon punted to White who raced seventy-five yards around the entire Yellow Jackets' team for a touchdown. White's interference was perfect. Hastings failed to kick the extra point. White returned Randolph-Macon's kick-off to the fifty-yard line. Hastings made a yard by plunging through center. Captain Levvy was substituted, and on the first play, skirted left end for seven yards. Hastings plunged for a first down. The Yellow Jacket line downed Levvy on the next play for a two-yard loss. The Indians attempted two passes, both of which went bad. The whistle ended the first half. Score, William and Mary 13; Randolph-Macon 7.

Third Quarter

The second half opened with Flanders substituting for Levvy and Parsons for A. Z. Williams. Randolph-Macon kicked off and downed Hastings in his tracks on the sixty-yard line. White gained nine yards off left

OCTOBER 20, 1922

It is very gratifying to note the absence on the campus of any great amount of factionalism this year and to see the great majority of students, at least, working for the best interests of Alma Mater. It is only natural that, while all of us have the welfare of William and Mary at heart, there should exist differences of opinion as to how her interests can best be subserved. Thus, in former years, at apparently regular intervals, periods of disharmony and internal strife have arisen; and it is indeed encouraging to see no sign of them recurring this year.

We rejoice in this first, for the sake of the College itself; for only by reducing visions and factions to a minimum can the welfare of William and Mary best be advanced. We rejoice in it again for the sake of the football team, as it is always the athletic squads that suffer most from division and strife in the student body, through loss of morale, fighting spirit, and team-work—all essential characteristics of a winning team. And there is no doubt that such periods of disharmony have had much to do with the success of failure of our team in the past.

We pray for a continuance of this era of unity and harmony in opinion and purpose, and trust that no dispute will arise to mar an otherwise successful year for the College and a record year in athletics. To that end we urge a whole-hearted striving for the welfare of the group as such and a disregarding of petty likes and dislikes, disputes and disagreements, prejudices and opinions.

Fifteen Candidates Enter Contest

In response to the Flat Hat's call for reporters, fifteen candidates have entered the contest which will be held for the next four weeks. At that time, four reporters will be selected by members of the Flat Hat staff. The first meeting of the contestants was held in the chapel on Tuesday afternoon and the staff was well pleased with the interest and enthusiasm shown by the would-be journalists.

During the period of the contest, assignments will be given to the contestants by Miss Muriel Valentine, Harry Wilkins, and George Downing, who are assignment editors. The selection of the new staff members will be based upon the ability to gather news, the style of the news stories and the news value of the articles.

The contest will be of twofold benefit to the College inasmuch as it will develop a greater interest in journalism among the students and also help to fill the Flat Hat columns with good live news items.

The students who will be cub reporters for the next four weeks are as follows: Virginia Addison, Elizabeth Smith, Elizabeth Walmsley, Carolyn Kelly, J. Patrick Kemp, C. R. Addington, J. W. Somerville, George W. Reilly, M. B. Reynolds, D. L. Provost, E. C. Joyner, Joseph H. Binder, B. L. Tucker, Maskell G. Maurada, and Larry Green.

Progress Shown In Women's Athletics

Swimming is the popular sport with the Co-eds this year, with tennis running a close second. Many of the women students have enrolled for hockey and archery, while others are waiting eagerly for the basketball season.

Nearly fifty girls have entered the afternoon and evening swimming classes for beginners, and many more expert swimmers take advantage of the plunge hours. Tennis and archery classes are under the direction of Miss Brown.

The bad weather has prevented progress being made in hockey, and although several meetings have been held, the twenty-two girls needed for the two teams have been out only once. However, it is hoped that enough girls will be out to learn the game this fall, and that it will be possible to do some work on the hockey field in the future.

Basketball will begin after Thanksgiving. The prospects for a good team this year are good; many of last year's team are back, and the material among the new girls is decidedly promising.

STUDENTS SEE PLAY IN NEWPORT NEWS

Misses Elise Eades, Thomas Bland, Mildred Vaiden, Mary O. Parker, Helen Berlin, and Mary King, attended the presentation of "The Circle" at Newport News on Monday evening. It was reported that, although the plot of this play was highly improbable, the acting was very good.

Dr. C. C. Fitchner Is Added To Faculty

The faculty has just been increased through the addition of Dr. C. C. Fitchner as associate professor in the School of Economics and Business Administration. Dr. Fitchner is a B. S. of Harvard. He also spent one year in graduate work at Harvard in Business Administration and Economics, after which he attended the University of Lyons, France, where he received the degree of Docteur en Droit. The addition to the faculty in the School of Economics and Business Administration was made necessary by reason of the fact that Dr. Voke is now devoting his entire time to accountancy. Dr. Fitchner will lecture on Commercial Geography and Principles of Economics.

Regular Meeting of Y. W. C. A. Held

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. took the form of a song-service. The meeting was very successful in conveying some of the enthusiasm and aspiration of Blue Ridge by means of the songs which the delegates learned there. Margaret Keister conducted the service. The new songs will be used throughout the year at mass meetings of the girls.

TIGHTEST MAN DISCOVERED

It is reported on good authority that "Duc" Coleman climbs through a hole in the fence when he is at home in order to avoid wearing out the hinges on the gate.

ALUMNI NEWS

Coach "Bill" Ingram and several members of the faculty attended a meeting of the alumni last evening at the Warwick Hotel in Newport News. The meeting was called by Howard H. Lackley for the purpose of promoting college spirit among the alumni of William and Mary on the Peninsula.

Alumni of the Peninsula were present and important steps were taken to determine a permanent athletic policy for the College.

It is sincerely hoped that this meeting will result in more of its kind being held, and that its influence will cement the College and alumni into a unit for the furtherance of the interest of the School.

MR. BROCKMAN DELIVERS ADDRESS ON CHINA AND JAPAN

all nations. "No longer can we isolate ourselves from other nations of the world," he declared. "There is a moral duty for America to associate herself with other nations, and we are drawn to them whether we want to be or not."

Br. Brockman declared that most young people do not realize the changes that have taken place in China, whose population constitutes one-fourth of the people of the world. Napoleon once said of China, "There sleeps the great giant, and let her sleep, for when she wakes she will shake the world." China is awakening today. The dress of her people is becoming more European, her war tactics are no longer crude, but are modern in every detail, economic conditions have changed, factories employing as many as 25,000 men are in operation, education is increasing, and the young men of China have practically stopped the opium habit. These advances are the results of Christian influences. "But with all this progress there is a danger that China will become Bolshevik unless the United States can help her. We must help China to profit by the experiences of other nations," the speaker declared.

"Preaching is not the only way to spread the Gospel," said Mr. Brockman, "and often, it is not the best way. Jesus spent more time in doing good than in preaching. The work of doing good has been the method employed by the Y. M. C. A. in China, and it is necessary at this important stage to see that the work goes forward."

Mr. Brockman stated that the students are the fellows who are ruling the world and that it is very true in China. "It is through helping the Chinese students that we can best help China," he asserted. Mr. Brockman did not make any requests for money but he showed the great need for continuing the work of the Y. M. C. A. among foreign students. In a meeting of the Y. Cabinet after the address, he told the members that he hoped they would see fit to take up this work, and that William and Mary would support the efforts being made in China to advance education and Christianity.

Mr. Brockman's address, interspersed with humor and interesting stories, was very instructive and was enjoyed by a good crowd of men students. Mr. Carter H. Harrison, student and cabinet member, introduced Mr. Brockman.

ROTARIANS PAID A VISIT TO COLLEGE

length of the dining hall were required to accommodate those attending. At the head of the tables sat the two chairmen, G. Franklin Lenz, President of the Newport News Club, and Harry R. Houston, President of the Hampton Club, who alternated in introducing the speakers.

Following the lead of other clubs in the State, the gathering passed a motion to draw up resolutions asking the Governor to call a special session of the General Assembly for the purpose of passing upon a good road bond issue. It was announced, also, that Newport News and Norfolk had completed their share of the inter-community pledge to subscribe a loan to cover partially the construction of the concrete road from Toano to Richmond.

The speakers for the evening included Roy C. Charles, Mayor J. V. Bickford, of Hampton, Ashton Dovell, representing Mayor J. M. Henderson, of Williamsburg; J. E. Wilkins, John Weymouth, Dr. Chandler, G. Franklin Lenz, Harry R. Houston, W. S. Cope-land, and Rev. C. H. McAllister. Besides the speeches of welcome and response, the subjects chosen were the different aspects and ideals of Rotary and a comparison of them with the ideals of William and Mary. Said J. E. Wilkins, "Two hundred and twelve years before Rotary was born, William and Mary was carrying out the ideal of service and good-fellowship—the Rotary ideal."

The speaking was closed by Rev. James Blair, founder and first president of William and Mary, who dressed in powdered wig and flowing black robes, recounted the early history of the college and gave his reasons for establishing it at Williamsburg. This delightful and inimitable impersonation was given by Rotarian Godfrey Smith, of Newport News.

The meeting might easily have been mistaken for a gathering of William and Mary alumni who had returned to visit their Alma Mater; for everywhere her sons were in evidence and were predominant.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the College Orchestra, which was repeatedly encored. "Elder" Cobb, of Norfolk, and the Rotary Quartet also assisted in entertaining the visitors.

The worst student war seen in many years at the University of Pennsylvania raged for several hours last Friday night. Just after the freshmen had gone to bed, the sophomores gathered in the Quadrangle and gave the "Freshie" yell. The freshmen jumped from their beds and donned shoes and trousers.

As they issued from their rooms, they were seized and, upon offering resistance, soon found themselves in the midst of a pitched battle. Several were dragged into the pond in the Botanical Gardens. Six men were taken to the University hospital, two of whom have not been discharged. Students in the Medical School gave first aid to about seventy-five others.

The students and faculty of Wake Forest College, according to the "Old Gold and Black," have made tentative plans to erect a suitable memorial in honor of Belvin W. Maynard, known as the "Flying Parson," who was once a student at this college.

The Intercollegiate Prohibition Association has announced an International Student Conference to be composed of university students from many countries to discuss the relationship of students and alcohol. The conference will meet at Toronto, Canada, about the last of November.

Enrollment Fifteen Short of Last Year's Registration Figures

Foreboding Omen Seen In Increase of Women Students

The total registration figures up to last night for all departments of the University were fourteen hundred and twenty. This is fifteen short of the number of students enrolled at the same time last year. The number of men who registered on the fifth day (Tuesday) last year was forty-eight, and it is thought that today's enrollment exceeded that number, so the final registration for the year will probably approximate 1800. Last year's maximum figures were 1756.

Law School Enrollment Slumps

The registration to date by departments of the University is as follows: the College, 838; Department of Education, 38; Graduate School, 46; Engineering School, 144; Medical School, 154; Law School, 200. The enrollment in the Law School at this time last year was 264. A decrease was expected in view of the stricter entrance requirements which are being enforced this year.

Twenty-Seven Women Registered

The registration on the first day this year was 435, as compared with 415 on the first day last year. The number who registered the second day was 447, as against 464 last year. The number Saturday was 454, as against 473 last year. And the number yesterday was 84, as against 83 on the same day last year. The total number of women now registered is 27, while there were only 23 of the same sex in the University at this time last year.

Norfolk Anxious To Have R. M. C. There

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees in June, a committee of Norfolk citizens, headed by William Holmes Davis, '92, presented a tentative plan for inviting the removal of Randolph-Macon College to Norfolk.

The board appointed a special committee to look into the matter and hear any definite proposals of Norfolk interests. This committee consists of G. C. Wright, of Petersburg, Dr. B. F. Lipscomb, of Lynchburg, Congressman J. P. Woods, of Roanoke, Dr. H. P. Hamill, of Alexandria, and E. Frank Story, of Franklin.

During the summer the "Greater Randolph-Macon Campaign" was launched in Norfolk and vicinity and the proposed effort to secure Randolph-Macon for Norfolk has aroused great interest in that section. Prominent citizens and leading civic organizations have expressed themselves strongly in favor of the effort.

Items appearing in the public press indicate that the committee will offer a million dollars and a hundred acres of land.

Needless to say, the responsibility of considering the relative advantage to the college of remaining in its present site or moving to a new one rests with the trustees. But all alumni and friends will rally to the idea of a "greater Randolph-Macon" whether the future developments take place at Ashland or Norfolk.

According to the Yellow Jacket, a luncheon was held in Norfolk last week, at which a committee of twenty-five members of the Chamber of Commerce of Norfolk and five members of the trustees of Randolph-Macon College met in consultation of the proposed plan of moving R.-M. C. to Norfolk.

Rhode Island State College is fortunate this year in having new furnishing and laboratory equipment in the Agricultural Building. The "Beacon" is a "live wire" because it loves to publish the progress of the school it represents.

Junior Class Has Election of Chaplain

After some discussion, the Junior Class, at its regular assembly Tuesday morning, elected Carter Harrison chaplain, the chaplain first elected being ineligible. The election was unanimous.

Mr. Phillips conducted the business meeting of the class. He forcibly pointed out the importance of attending chapel, urging every Junior to be prompt and regular.

SENIOR CHAPEL EXERCISES TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Senior Chapel exercises beginning with next week will be on Wednesday morning at the regular time instead of on Monday as previously. The Senior Class made this change at Dr.

Chandler's suggestion, as members of the class who go out of town for the week end do not return in time to attend chapel exercises Monday morning.

Yes! Writing without effort!

What George S. Parker has achieved for students with the 25-Year Duofold

THIS lacquer-red pen with jet black tips is not only handsomer than gold—it's a perfect classmate for the college man or girl.

Better penmanship for every one—without effort or fatigue—on any paper—at study, at classes or at lectures.

Mr. Parker achieved it by producing a native Iridium point as smooth and life-enduring as a jewel bearing, and a leak-proof barrel with a grip that is balanced with scientific precision and symmetry.

Such perfect poise and super-smoothness in writing relieves the nerves of tension. The Duofold glides under your subconscious direction of its own balanced weight!

You think of only what you're writing—not how. So your thoughts come easier, clearer, more composed.

We will let you have the Duofold for 30 days to demonstrate. You'll never be content to write the old way after that. Even before they tried this 25-Year point, 62 men in 100 chose the Duofold for its classic beauty and balance from a tray of assorted pens. Its popularity has never been equalled.

Oversize Duofold—a real HE Pen holds a double ration of ink, $7. Duofold Jr. and Lady Duofold at $5 are like it in everything save size. Come in and try the points—extra fine, fine, medium, coarse and stub. Students are always welcome here.

Parker
Duofold
The 25 Year Pen

Duofold Jr. $5
Same except for size

Lady Duofold $5

OVER-SIZE
$7

Rivals the beauty of the scarlet Tanager, only Duofold is a soft, lacquer-red, found in Chinese arts.

Would you dare lend your roommate the ordinary pen? Duofold holds its original point regardless of who writes.

Press the button and Duofold drinks its fill. No pump—no lever to catch on clothing and spill ink.

YELLOW JACKETS BOW TO INDIANS

tackle and Flanders sifted through center for a first down. Irwin clipped off two yards over tackle. Flanders split center for eight yards and made a first down. Hastings made another first down by three line bucks. Irwin piled over tackle for four yards and Flanders smashed through guard for a first down. Hastings waded through center for two yards. The Indians were penalized five yards for being off-side. The Yellow Jackets broke up two passes and received the ball on their twenty-yard line. After two futile attempts to gain through the Indian line, Riddick booted the ball to the forty-yard line. Irwin made ten yards on a first down around right end. Hastings smashed through center for two yards and White raced around left end for nine yards and a first down. White was again elected to carry the ball and he did beautifully. It was for ten yards around left end resulting in William and Mary's third touchdown. Hastings kicked the extra point. The Indians kicked to the Yellow Jackets' five-yard line. William and Mary's line stopped three line plunges and Riddick punted to Levvy who returned the oval to the center of the field. With the assistance of Flanders and Hastings, Captain Levvy made three first downs in rapid succession, by hard driving over tackle and end. Score, William and Mary 20, Randolph-Macon 7.

Fourth Quarter

Levvy plunged over left tackle for eight yards. Hastings bucked center for first down. Captain Levvy, the Indian "Whiskaway," cut through tackle for two yards and made the fourth Indian touchdown. He also kicked the extra point. Randolph-Macon punted to Levvy on the Indian forty-five yard line. Levvy was tackled in his tracks. Levvy and Jordan executed a beautiful pass which netted forty yards.

Levvy drove over guard for three yards and Irwin clipped off seven yards through tackle for first down. Winston Irwin shot through center for the Indians' fifth touchdown. Levvy missed the goal. Riddick kicked off to Levvy who returned the pig skin to the forty-yard line. The Yellow Jackets intercepted a pass in the center of the field. Randolph-Macon completed its first pass of the day, a flop pass which netted three yards. At this point the Indians made several substitutions, and with a couple of exchanges of punts, the game ended with Randolph-Macon holding the ball on its own thirty-yard line.

Pictures At The Palace This Week

Shows at 4, 7, 8:30 P. M. Daily

MONDAY

TUESDAY

Wallace Reid, Paramount star who has been seen in several pictures as a racing driver in which he drove big, powerful cars around the track, pilots a small "flivver" type of racer in his latest picture, "Across the Continent."

WEDNESDAY

"For the Defense," a new Paramount picture which will be shown at the Palace Theatre on Wednesday, is undoubtedly Ethel Clayton's crowning achievement as a Paramount star. Miss Clayton portrays a highly emotional and dramatic role in this interesting story of crime and mystery.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

Freckles Barry in "Penrod" is the feature for Thursday and Friday. This picture is taken from the story by Booth Tarkington and produced by Marshall Neilan. Filled with human interest and a portrayal of child life, the production is sure to please.

SATURDAY

When a man finds women "easy" for him, he sometimes loses his sense of wariness. The man that women couldn't ignore finds himself in the hands of a woman, just a little too smart for his cleverness in the story of "Paid Back," which will be shown at the Palace Theatre on Saturday.
